

Miller Canfield's Steven Mann Elected to Michigan Association of Municipal Attorneys Board

October 24, 2016

Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that Steven Mann has been elected to serve a three-year term on the Michigan Association of Municipal Attorneys Board of Directors.

Mann is a principal in Miller Canfield's Detroit office, and is a member of the firm's Public Finance Group, representing public agencies as bond counsel. His practice covers all facets of infrastructure financing, tax increment financing, special assessments and economic development.

Mann serves as City Attorney for the City of Milan and as general counsel for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority and the Michigan South Central Power Agency. He is a trustee on the Charter Township of Plymouth Board of Trustees, and previously served as the Township's elected Township Supervisor.

Mann has authored several amicus curiae briefs for the Michigan Court of Appeals and the Michigan Supreme Court, arguing on behalf of public bodies and municipal associations in cases involving complex issues related to the Freedom of Information Act and the Open Meetings Act. He is a graduate of Thomas M. Cooley Law School.

The Municipal Association of Municipal Attorneys is a chartered section of the Michigan Municipal League, a nonprofit corporation.
