

Aimee Jachym Selected to Participate in Leadership Kalamazoo

December 11, 2017

Aimee Jachym has been selected to participate in Leadership Kalamazoo, an intensive community leadership development resource that brings together a diverse group of current and emerging leaders.

Jachym is a Senior Attorney in Miller Canfield's International, and Corporate and Transactions practices, where she works extensively with clients of all sizes in the automotive, automated and connected vehicles, and health care sectors.

"Aimee is an emerging leader in the practice of law as well as in the community," said Miller Canfield CEO Michael McGee.

Jachym is active in the Korean Kids & Orphanage Outreach Mission, where she serves as president and founder, and the Western Michigan University Haworth College of Business Young Alumni Advisory Board. She previously served on the Korean Connection Board of Directors, International Business Group of West Michigan Board of Directors, and the Great Lakes PeaceJam/Seeding Change Board of Directors.
