

Miller Canfield Names 12 New Principals

February 13, 2018

Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that 12 of its attorneys from the firm's offices in Michigan, Ohio and Illinois have been elected as Principal. The announcement was made by CEO Michael McGee at the firm's annual meeting.

The following attorneys were elected as Principals:

- Katrina Desmond, Public Finance Group, Detroit
- Paul Durbin, Public Finance Group, Chicago
- Samantha Galecki, Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group, Ann Arbor, Michigan
- Scott Lesser, Real Estate Group, Troy, Michigan
- James Liggins, Jr., Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group, Kalamazoo, Michigan
- Robert Murkowski, Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group, Detroit
- Matthew Neale, Corporate and Transactions Group, Kalamazoo
- Reshma Sambare, Real Estate Group, Lansing
- Misbah Shahid, Employment and Labor Group, Detroit
- Ronald Spinner, Bankruptcy, Restructuring and Insolvency Group, Detroit
- Nancy Valentine, Real Estate Group, Cleveland
- Larry Woodard, Real Estate Group, Chicago

"We are fortunate to have such a large group of attorneys who have proven themselves to be exceptionally skilled lawyers, as well as leaders in the firm and the legal community. They are assets to the clients they serve as well as to the firm," McGee said.
