

Jeffrey LaBine Appointed Vice Chair of ABA International Mergers and Acquisitions Subcommittee

February 14, 2018

Jeffrey LaBine, Deputy Group Leader of Miller Canfield's Corporate and Transactions Group and New York Resident Director was appointed to serve as Vice Chair of the American Bar Association Mergers and Acquisitions Committee's International Mergers and Acquisitions Subcommittee. The announcement was made at the M&A Committee's annual stand-alone meeting in Laguna Beach California.

Licensed in Michigan and New York, LaBine focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and other corporate and securities law matters. He has represented public and private clients in a variety of U.S. and multinational transactions, including acquisitions, dispositions, mergers, auctions, carve-out transactions, strategic investments, reorganizations, joint ventures and other corporate matters.

The American Bar Association serves more than 400,000 members, supporting the legal profession while improving the administration of justice.