

Frederick Acomb Appointed Vice Chair of IBA Litigation Committee

February 14, 2018

Miller Canfield International Disputes Group Leader Frederick Acomb has been appointed Vice Chair of the International Bar Association's Litigation Committee.

For more than two decades, Acomb has defended and prosecuted international arbitration and transnational litigation for clients around the world. He has appeared before arbitration tribunals in Asia, Europe and North America.

He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a Fellow in the Oakland County Bar Association. He has been named among U.S. News & World Report's "Best Lawyers in America," and was named as a Top Lawyer in DBusiness Magazine.

The International Bar Association is the World's leading organization of international lawyers. The IBA influences the development of international law reform and shapes the future of the legal profession worldwide.