

Julianne Cassin Sharp to Lead Miller Canfield Immigration Practice

---

May 23, 2018

Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that Julianne Cassin Sharp has joined the firm as a principal attorney and will lead the firm's Immigration practice. The announcement was made by CEO Michael McGee.

Bilingual in Spanish and English, Sharp has 17 years of experience representing companies and individuals in all aspects of immigration and nationality law. Her areas of expertise include, but are not limited to immigrant petitions, nonimmigrant petitions, foreign labor certification, adjustment of status applications, waivers, naturalization, consular processing, and advising companies on corporate compliance audits and risk assessment. She is also a member of and a frequent speaker for the American Immigration Lawyers Association.

"Bringing Julianne on board is a part of our strategic vision to address current and future client needs in the area of immigration matters," McGee said. "Her extensive experience and proven results, as well as her history of providing sophisticated client service, make her the perfect choice to lead and manage our Immigration practice team."

Sharp will work in Miller Canfield's Detroit office, where the global firm of more than 220 attorneys is headquartered. Sharp earned her Juris Doctorate from the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law. She is a graduate of the Carl and Winifred Lee Honors College of Western Michigan University and studied abroad at La Universidad Autónoma de Querétaro in Querétaro, Mexico. She has been recognized repeatedly by U.S. News and World Report's "Best Lawyers in America" and dBusiness' "Top Lawyers."