August 14, 2018

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH. (Aug. 14, 2018)—Joseph Infante, a principal attorney in Miller Canfield's Grand Rapids office, has been named on Grand Rapids Business Journal's annual "40 Under 40" list.

Infante was selected as a business leader in Grand Rapids for his excellence in the practice of law, his outstanding reputation as one of the top craft beverage lawyers nationwide, and for the significant volunteer work he does for Hospice of Michigan, for which he serves on the Foundation Board. He is also the co-chair and founder of the Hospice of Michigan's Barley, BBQ & Beats annual fundraiser.

This is the second time Infante has been on the "40 Under 40" list, having been previously recognized in 2016. He has been named in Michigan Super Lawyers as a top business litigation attorney every year since 2013, and is listed in Leading Lawyers in Michigan.

Grand Rapids Business Journal received a record number of nominations—479 in all—and considered 294 final candidates for the recognition. The entire "40 Under 40" list will be released on Oct. 9, 2018, in a special section of GRBJ, and honorees will be recognized at a special event in mid-October.
