October 4, 2019

Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that it has been named on Forbes Magazine's inaugural list of America's Top Corporate Law Firms in 2019.

The firms named on the list were selected based on the results of an independent survey of lawyers nationwide, who were asked to recommend law firms in 17 fields. The 2,500 attorneys who responded to the survey identified Miller Canfield as most recommended in the area of Corporate Governance law.

"We are proud to be named among some of the top law firms in the country," said Miller Canfield CEO Michael McGee. "We have worked tremendously hard at building and maintaining a reputation for delivering top-notch legal services and earning the trust of our clients and the respect of our peers."

The recognition comes at a time when Miller Canfield is strategically growing in key markets, having opened an office in Washington, D.C. in June, and adding new lawyers in its offices in Chicago and throughout Michigan during the second half of 2019.
