

Shusheng Wang Named Among Go-To Business Lawyers

April 18, 2022

Miller Canfield's Shusheng Wang was named in Michigan Lawyers Weekly's Go-To Lawyers for Business Law.

Wang is Miller Canfield's co-director of global business and a member of the firm's China practice. He has extensive experience in international business transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructuring, corporate governance, tax planning, litigation, joint ventures, technology transfers, offshore structures and greenfield projects.

He has helped Chinese companies invest more than $5 billion in the United States.

Michigan Lawyers Weekly's "Go-To Lawyers" recognizes attorneys as leaders in their specific practice areas, including intellectual property, employment, real estate, medical malpractice and business law. Go-To Lawyers for Business Law will be profiled in a special section of the newspaper in the May 30 digital and print editions.
