

Middle East Policy Council Names Lana Yaghi to 40 Under 40 List

November 21, 2022

The Middle East Policy Council has named Miller Canfield attorney Lana Yaghi among its 40 Under 40 Award winners for 2023.

The award recognizes the breadth of cultural, economic and political relationships between the United States and countries of the Middle East. Awardees represent a variety of professional backgrounds, including academia, business, culture and diplomacy.

Yaghi is a senior attorney in Miller Canfield's Corporate and Transactions Group. She works in the firm's offices in Doha, Qatar, where she is the co-resident director, and Washington, D.C. Her practice is focused on cybersecurity, aerospace and defense, and private aviation.

Yaghi regularly advises clients on Qatari law, often relating to corporate establishment and structuring, and represents clients in cross-border commercial transactions, particularly with Middle Eastern private and public entities.

To see the full list of awardees, please visit. 2023 40 Under 40 Awards - Middle East Policy Council \(mepc.org\)