Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that Carl von Ende has been named in the Michigan Lawyers Weekly Hall of Fame Class of 2023. The annual program recognizes Michigan's legal leaders who are over the age of 60 or who have been in practice for 30 years for their successful careers and valuable contributions to the community.

A member of the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group for more than 50 years, von Ende specializes in trial, appeal, arbitration and mediation of antitrust, securities, intellectual property, corporate governance and debtor-creditor litigation. He is a trusted advisor and mentor to attorneys, from the most experienced senior principal to the newest associate.

Known for his collegiality and strategic, thoughtful and creative approach to matters, von Ende was one of the early recipients of the Federal Bar Association's prestigious Cooke-Friedman Civility Award.

"At a firm like Miller Canfield, where many of our longtime colleagues are known as being among the best in the profession and titans of the bar, Carl is a standout among giants," said Miller Canfield CEO Megan Norris.

A recognition awards luncheon will honor the Class of 2023 on April 21, 2023. Profiles of the honorees will appear in a special section in the April 24, 2023, issue of Michigan Lawyers Weekly.
