

Katina Gorman Joins Miller Canfield's Employment and Labor Group

March 20, 2023

Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that Katina Gorman has joined the law firm's Employment and Labor Group in its office in Troy, Michigan.

Gorman's practice focuses on employee benefits and ERISA. She is well-versed in drafting plan documents, trust documents, summary plan descriptions, plan and trust amendments, policies and procedures, SMMs, SBCs, and other participant notifications and communications related to benefit plans.

Additionally, Gorman is experienced in negotiating service provider contracts, investment management agreements and business associate agreements. She has particular expertise with the administration, design and operation of Taft-Hartley multiemployer fringe benefit funds including: health and welfare funds; defined benefit pension funds; defined contribution pension funds; 401(k) funds; VEBA's; and other ancillary fringe benefit funds.

Licensed in Michigan and Illinois, Gorman is a graduate of the University of Illinois Chicago School of Law and the University of Michigan. She is a member of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans and serves on the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Detroit Summer Camp Board of Directors.