

Miller Canfield Expands Employment and Labor Group

July 16, 2024

Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that the firm has expanded its Employment and Labor Group with the addition of Senior Attorney Kyle Bierlein and Associate Attorney Eftiola Greco.

Bierlein comes to the law firm after serving as Michigan Assistant Attorney General, advising state clients in matters involving hiring practices, discrimination and harassment, employee discipline and termination, and employer policies and handbooks. He previously served as Chief Law Clerk for the Michigan Attorney General's Office in the Children and Youth Services Division in Wayne County.

Greco's experience includes advising and representing clients on a broad range of litigation and regulatory matters. Her previous experience includes work for the Detroit City Council as a Senior Policy Advisor, and serving as the City of Detroit Board of Ethics' General Counsel and the City of Detroit's Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Greco and Bierlein join Miller Canfield's Employment and Labor Group, which is widely recognized as one of the best in the United States. Law firm and lawyer research and ranking organization Chambers USA ranks Miller Canfield among the top management-side employment and labor law firms in Michigan. The firm is the designated Michigan and Polish law firm in the Employment Law Alliance, a network of the best labor and employment firms in the world.

A graduate of Michigan State University College of Law and Wayne State University, Greco is the vice president of the Albanian American Bar Association of Michigan and is a member of the Detroit Bar Association and the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan.

Bierlein is a graduate of Wayne State University Law School and Oakland University.
