

Miller Canfield Attorney Frederick Acomb Appointed Co-Chair of the ABA International Litigation Committee

April 10, 2026

Miller Canfield is pleased to announce that Frederick A. Acomb, principal and leader of the firm's International Disputes Group, has been appointed Co-Chair of the American Bar Association International Litigation Committee. His appointment will commence Aug. 5, 2026, and runs through Aug. 4, 2027.

Acomb represents clients around the world in transnational litigation and international arbitration matters and has appeared before arbitration tribunals in Asia, Europe and North America. He also has extensive experience handling international automotive supply chain disputes.

As Co-Chair, Acomb will help support the committee's leadership and activities, including programming, business planning and member engagement.
