

Miller Canfield Recognized as a Leading Litigation Firm in Michigan

May 22, 2008

The law firm of Miller Canfield announces that it has been highly recommended as a leading litigation firm in Michigan in Benchmark: The Definitive Guide to America's Leading Litigation Firms in America 2008, published by Legal Media Group.

The guide gives special recognition to Miller Canfield litigators Thomas W. Cranmer, W. Mack Faison, Michael W. Hartmann, Clarence L. Pozza, Jr., and Carl von Ende, for their litigation work.

Benchmark focuses exclusively on the U.S. litigation market. Recommendations were made on the basis of face-to-face and telephone interviews conducted between October 2006 and May 2007 with the nation's leading private practice lawyers and in-house counsel.

Miller Canfield's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Group has approximately 100 lawyers in the U.S. and Canada who spend a majority of their time on litigation matters, including intellectual property, antitrust, trade secret, patent infringement claims, white-collar criminal defense, and securities litigation.

With 379 attorneys practicing in all major areas of law, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. is among the 200 largest law firms in the U.S. and is Michigan's largest and oldest law firm.

The firm was established in Detroit in 1852 and currently employs 800 in offices in Michigan, Illinois, Massachusetts, Florida, New York, Canada and Poland.
