

Miller Canfield International Business Briefing: Non-U.S. Citizen Legal Issues

February 15, 2007

The law firm of Miller Canfield discusses "Non-U.S. Citizen Legal Issues" at an upcoming International Business Briefing on Wednesday, March 7, from 7:30-9:00 a.m. at the Automation Alley International Business Center (2675 Bellingham, Troy, Mich.). There is no cost to attend.

Miller Canfield attorneys Ken Konop and Brian Jenney will share valuable information and answer questions on the special legal issues that non-U.S. citizens face regarding taxes and estate planning, including establishing wills, trusts, and powers of attorney.

The event is co-sponsored by Miller Canfield and Automation Alley. Please make reservations with Sandy Bera at 248.267.3345 or bera@millercanfield.com.

Mark your calendar for these upcoming Miller Canfield International Business Briefings: Demystifying the U.S. Department of Homeland Security on April 26; International Arbitration on May 22; and U.S. Customs Update on June 5.
