

millercanfield.com Receives "Standard of Excellence" in 2003 Web Marketing Association Competition

October 27, 2003

The law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C., announces that its Web site, millercanfield.com, recently received a "Standard of Excellence" in the 2003 WebAward Competition sponsored by the Web Marketing Association.

The Web site was commended for its layout, and one member of the Web Marketing Association panel who reviewed entries commented that the site's "design is fast and easy to navigate."

millercanfield.com offers helpful information about emerging legal issues and recently enacted laws, descriptions of the firm's practice and specialty areas, as well as a directory of offices, attorneys and managing officers. It also features a narrative of the firm's 151-year-history and a newsroom – equipped with the latest press announcements, newsletters, client alerts and seminar information.

The WebAwards are produced by the Web Marketing Association, Inc., an independent organization founded with the exclusive purpose of evaluating and recognizing the standard of excellence on the World Wide Web for corporate web sites.

The 300-attorney law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. was established in Detroit in 1852 and has offices in Ann Arbor, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Howell, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Monroe, and Troy, Michigan.
