July 17, 2006

Miller Canfield announces that Gary R. Glenn has joined the law firm's Detroit office as a principal and leader of the Federal Tax Group. He joins the firm after 25 years with Jaffe Raitt Heuer & Weiss PC of Southfield, Mich.

He has extensive experience in all areas of federal tax, particularly with tax planning for business combinations, sales, purchases and divisions. He also has experience in the formation and compliance of tax-exempt entities, as well as tax litigation and collection issues involving federal and state tax authorities.

"Gary Glenn has been one of the leading tax practitioners in Southeast Michigan for many years," said Thomas W. Linn, CEO of Miller Canfield. "He brings great, practical knowledge in this area, fine leadership and interpersonal skills and will help broaden our capacity to serve clients' legal needs."

Glenn is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, American Immigration Lawyers Association, and National Association of Bond Lawyers.

He was awarded his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School, and his B.A. in Economics, with high distinction, from the University of Michigan.

He resides in Grosse Pointe, Michigan.

Attorneys in Miller Canfield's Federal Tax Group work with diverse client needs involving federal tax matters, from the most complex issues of large multinational corporations to the tax issues of closely held businesses and individuals.

The 350-attorney law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. was established in Detroit in 1852 and has offices in Ann Arbor, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Howell, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Monroe, Saginaw, and Troy, Michigan.
