

Miller Canfield Sponsors Exhibit in Poland to Commemorate the Lives Lost on 9/11

September 23, 2002

Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. recently sponsored the American Chamber of Commerce in Poland's "New York - 11 September" photo exhibition. The display honors those affected by the attacks on the United States on September 11, 2001 and expresses Poland's support for the U.S. The "New York - 11 September" exhibition was open September 11-24 at the Gallery Centrum Kultury in Kraków, Poland.

Miller Canfield has three offices in Poland, where its attorneys represent a variety of commercial, financial, and manufacturing organizations, and some of the largest automotive, construction, and building companies operating in Poland. In 1991, the firm joined the rebuilding of Eastern Europe and opened its first office in Gdynia. It later opened an office in Warsaw in 1993 and an office in Katowice in 1997.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Poland (AmCham), founded in 1991, is an economic organization representing American companies on the Polish market. Membership includes more than three hundred companies active in the Polish market. It is a voluntary, non-partisan advocacy organization devoted to strengthening and developing investment and business opportunities in Poland.

Celebrating its 150th anniversary, the 300-attorney law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. was established in Detroit in 1852 and has offices in Ann Arbor, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Howell, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Monroe, Troy, New York City, Pensacola, Florida, Washington, D.C., Windsor, Ontario, and in Gdynia, Katowice, and Warsaw, Poland.
