

Miller Canfield Attorneys Present "Employee Discipline & Termination"

April 12, 2005

Labor and employment attorneys from Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. will present "Employee Discipline & Termination" in conjunction with Michigan Chamber Services. The seminar will help employers remain legally compliant when managing employees, especially when dealing with difficult employees. Time spent dealing with problem employees can decrease productivity, waste essential company resources, and expose employers to potential legal liabilities. The seminar is offered 9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m. on April 19 in Grand Rapids (Kurt N. Sherwood, presenter); April 26 in Lansing (James B. Thelen, presenter); and April 28 in Novi (Jennifer L. Sabourin, presenter).

For more information and to register, contact Michigan Chamber Services, a subsidiary of the Michigan Chamber of Commerce, at 1-800-748-0344. Cost is $270 for members of the Michigan Chamber; $295 for non-members, and group discounts are available. A Certification of Completion is available for this seminar.

All three presenting attorneys practice in Miller Canfield's Labor and Employment Group, which is comprised of more than 30 attorneys. Kurt Sherwood, James Thelen and Jennifer Sabourin recently spoke on interviewing and hiring for the Chamber of Commerce seminar series in March.

Attorneys from the Labor and Employment Group also recently updated the "Michigan Employment Law Handbook: Guide for Michigan Employers." Published by the Michigan Chamber of Commerce and originally written by Miller Canfield, the book helps employers of all sizes comply with labor and employment law regulations in Michigan.
