

Miller Canfield Presents Seminar on Medical Software Procurement, Licensing and Compliance In Troy, Saginaw and Grand Rapids

April 21, 2008

The law firm of Miller Canfield will host a seminar on “Medical Software Procurement, Licensing and Compliance” at three different locations in Michigan – April 24 in Troy; April 28 in Saginaw; and June 10 in Grand Rapids. Each seminar will take place at Miller Canfield’s office from 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Presented by Miller Canfield health law attorneys, the seminar is designed for medical practice executives, managers, physicians, nurses and information systems professionals who are involved in selecting group software systems and negotiating terms and conditions of their license maintenance.

The discussion will include standard vendor license agreements, healthcare software compliance matters, basic warranties needed in a license agreement, and early outs during installation and testing.
