

Attorney Elected Vice-Chair of State Bar of Michigan Section

October 9, 2001

Lawrence M. Dudek, a principal in the Detroit office of the law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C., has been elected Vice-Chair of the State Bar of Michigan's Real Property Law Section for 2001-2002.

Dudek is a commercial litigator who represents banking institutions and secured creditors in connection with all aspects of commercial foreclosures and workouts involving real estate and personal property, such as out-of-court workouts, federal bankruptcy, and state court litigation proceedings. He also provides representation to owners and contractors in commercial construction disputes.

He received his law degree, magna cum laude, from Wayne State University Law School, and his B.A. from The University of Michigan. Prior to joining the firm in 1990, he was a senior partner in the Southfield, Michigan law firm of Schlussel, Lifton, Simon, Rands, Galvin & Jackier, P.C.

He is a member of the American, Michigan, Federal, Detroit Metropolitan, and Oakland County Bar Associations. Previously he chaired the Continuing Legal Education Committee of the Real Property Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan. He also has published several decisions and articles relating to his area of practice and is a frequent speaker on foreclosure, bankruptcy, real estate, construction law, and personal property topics.

Mr. Dudek resides in Livonia, Michigan.
