

Miller Canfield Attorney Appointed Michigan District Representative of Young Lawyers Association of ABA

August 23, 2007

Danielle Mason Anderson, an associate in the Kalamazoo office of Miller Canfield, was appointed to a two year term as the Michigan District Representative of the Young Lawyers Division of the American Bar Association.

Mason Anderson will serve as a liaison between the American Bar Association and its Michigan affiliates. Also, in the event of a major disaster, she will be called upon to mobilize state and local attorneys to provide free legal assistance to disaster victims.

Her practice includes bankruptcy, financial institutions and transactions, and litigation and dispute resolution.

She is a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Michigan, State Bar of Massachusetts, Kalamazoo County Bar Association, and the Kalamazoo County Brownfield Redevelopment Authority and Economic Development Committee. She volunteers for the Kalamazoo County Child Abuse and Neglect Council, Habitat for Humanity, and Big Brothers Big Sisters of America.

She received her J.D. from the Northeastern University School of Law where she was a student member of the American Bar Association and a member of the Women's Law Caucus. She received a B.S. from Michigan State University where she majored in interdisciplinary studies and was a member of the Golden Key National Honor Society.

She resides in Portage, Michigan.

The law firm of Miller Canfield was established in Detroit in 1852 and employs more than 800 in offices in Michigan, Massachusetts, Florida, New York, Canada and Poland.
