

Miller Canfield Attorney Featured at Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants

October 13, 2003

David D. Joswick, a principal in Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C.'s Troy office, was a featured presenter at the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MACPA) Mergers & Acquisitions Conference, held Thursday, October 9 at the MSU Management Education Center in Troy. The conference, part of the MACPA's continuing professional education program, addressed accounting and business professionals, attorneys, bankers, intermediaries and executives seeking the latest information on mergers & acquisitions issues. Joswick co-conducted a discussion on recent legislation trends affecting the merger & acquisition (M&A) market, as well as case studies covering the implementation of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

At Miller Canfield, Joswick is a member of the Business and Finance Group and practices corporate and securities law. He also is a member of the firm's Corporate Compliance Group.

"We're pleased to host David as one of the featured presenters at this year's Mergers & Acquisitions Conference," said Peggy Dzierzawski, MACPA president. "His expertise in corporate and securities law makes him an ideal candidate to address other professionals regarding the current state of such critical issues as M&A legislation and the implementation of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act."

Active in the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Michigan, Joswick is a frequent lecturer on various business topics. He is an adjunct professor at the Wayne State University Law School and was previously an instructor at University of Michigan Law School. He earned a B.B.A. at the University of Michigan's School of Business Administration and his J.D. from Wayne State University. He is listed in the Banking Law and Corporate, Mergers & Acquisitions and Securities Law Sections of The Best Lawyers in America and was named one of the top attorneys in Michigan in Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers 2003-2004.

He resides in Birmingham.

The conference was presented along with Financial Executives International and the Association for Corporate Growth and sponsored in part by Huron Capital Partners. The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants is a diversified, professional, member-driven organization serving nearly 16,000 CPAs and affiliated professionals throughout Michigan.
