

Miller Canfield Attorney Appointed President-Elect of Out-of-State Practitioners Division of Florida Bar Association

August 17, 2007

Allyn D. Kantor, a principal at the Ann Arbor office of Miller Canfield, has been elected president-elect of the Out-of-State Practitioners Division of the Florida Bar Association. The division consists of approximately 12,000 members of the Florida Bar Association who hold licenses to practice law in other states.

At Miller Canfield, Kantor's practice includes complex civil litigation, health law, insurance matters, commercial real estate matters, employment litigation, securities broker liability, construction, environmental matters, and product liability.

He is a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Michigan, where he served on the Board of Commissioners, Federal Bar Association, Washtenaw County Bar Association, and American Arbitration Association and is an adjunct professor teaching Alternate Dispute Resolution at the University of Michigan Law School.

He received his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School, and a B.S. from Washington & Lee University where he majored in Business Administration.

He resides in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The law firm of Miller Canfield was established in Detroit in 1852 and employs more than 800 in offices in Michigan, Massachusetts, Florida, New York, Canada and Poland.