

Attorney Dana Khalife Joins Miller Canfield

March 16, 2009

The law firm of Miller Canfield announces that Dana G. Khalife has joined the firm as an attorney in the Troy, Michigan office. She is experienced in a broad range of areas including commercial, business and personal injury matters, as well as family law and criminal and civil litigation.

In her corporate practice, she has helped U.S. companies establish local branches in countries throughout the Middle East and has coordinated bi-lingual documentation to comply with multinational laws.

Prior to joining Miller Canfield, she was a judicial extern for the U.S. District Court of the Eastern District of Michigan, Chambers of the Honorable George Caram Steeh, and a judicial intern at Macomb County Circuit Court for the Honorable Deborah Servitto.

She is a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Michigan, New York State Bar Association, Federal Bar Association, Arab-American Bar Association, and Detroit Metropolitan Bar Association.

She received her B.A. from the University of Michigan and her J.D. from Wayne State University Law School.