

Miller Canfield Hosts Employment Law Seminar for Employers on October 29 in Troy

Seminar Features Guest Speaker David A. Brandon, Chairman and CEO, Domino's Pizza

October 12, 2009

The law firm of Miller Canfield will host its "Annual Employment Law Seminar" on Thursday, October 29, from 8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m. at the MSU Management Education Center in Troy, Michigan (811 W. Square Lake Road). The firm has assembled labor and employment lawyers from the U.S. and Canada to provide insight and offer practical solutions to some of the most pressing issues employers are facing today, such as managing a global workforce and running a business in a down economy.

The day begins with discussions on Michigan's Medical Marijuana Law, best practices for the upcoming flu season, and guest speaker, David A. Brandon, chairman of the board and CEO of Domino's Pizza, Inc., on making Michigan the comeback state.

Interactive presentations will provide important legal updates on a wide range of topics for human resource professionals, corporate counsel, and business executives who need to stay current on labor and employment laws, regulations and practices. The afternoon sessions include:

- Running Your Business in a Bad Economy
- Reducing Employee Absenteeism
- Managing a Global Workforce
- Employee Handbooks and Personnel Policies
- COBRA, HIPAA, ARRA – A Roadmap for Health Plan Acronyms
- Employee Free Choice Act

The all-day seminar begins with a continental breakfast and includes lunch. Cost is $95 per person; $80 for each additional attendee from the same company. Attendees will receive seminar materials on a complimentary flash drive. For an additional $25, attendees may purchase a hard-copy binder containing all seminar materials.
