

Miller Canfield Lawyer Danielle Mason Anderson Elected Chair of State Bar of Michigan Young Lawyers' Section

December 3, 2009

Miller Canfield associate Danielle Mason Anderson (Kalamazoo, Mich.) has been elected chair of the Young Lawyers' Section of the State Bar of Michigan for the 2009-2010 term.

At Miller Canfield, Mason Anderson frequently represents banks in the workouts of loans and accounts gone bad to achieve the best results possible in difficult financial times. She also does general litigation for corporate clients involving collection, loans, mortgages and defaults.

She received her J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law and B.S. from Michigan State University.

The State Bar of Michigan Young Lawyers' Section sponsors and carries on activities of interest and value to young lawyers in Michigan.