

Miller Canfield Lawyer Kim Scott Elected to Board of Ann Arbor Art Center

March 8, 2010

Miller Canfield associate Kimberly L. Scott (Ann Arbor, Mich.) was recently elected to the board of directors of the Ann Arbor Art Center, an organization dedicated to engaging the community in education, exhibition and exploration of the visual arts.

At Miller Canfield, Scott specializes in antitrust law, sports, media and entertainment law, and commercial contract and tort litigation. She received her J.D. from Wayne State University Law School and her B.A. from the University of Michigan.

Founded in 1909, the Ann Arbor Art Center is the only organization in Ann Arbor that offers hands-on art education, art appreciation programs, and exhibitions all in one facility. It is committed to breaking through economic, social and physical barriers by offering outreach programs to provide easy access to the arts for everyone, tuition grants and programs for all levels of art skill and interests in locations throughout the region.
