

Miller Canfield's Robert Levels Elected as Chair of Associate Board for Chicago Committee on Minorities in Large Law Firms

May 11, 2010

Miller Canfield associate Robert C. Levels (Chicago) was elected to a two-year term as chair of the Associate Board for the Chicago Committee on Minorities in Large Law Firms. As a vital part of the Chicago Committee, the Associate Board is comprised of associates of all levels, each helping to shape the direction of programming and services offered to associates and serving as the collective voice of the diverse associate community.

At Miller Canfield, Levels represents clients in a variety of areas including complex commercial litigation. His background also includes providing pro bono work for civil litigants and asylum seekers. He received his J.D. from Harvard Law School and B.A. from Yale University.

Founded in 1987, the Chicago Committee is a non-profit, membership-based organization focused on providing substantive programming for its membership as well as diverse law students, associates and partners.
