

Miller Canfield Lawyer Matthew Leitman Elected to Harvard Law School Association Council

May 14, 2010

Miller Canfield principal, Matthew F. Leitman (Troy, Mich. office), was recently elected to a four-year term on the Harvard Law School Association Council. The Council consists of law school alumni from around the country who advise the Association and the Harvard Law School administration concerning alumni affairs. Leitman, who graduated from Harvard Law School magna cum laude in 1993, has also served as the president of the Harvard Law School Association of Michigan for the past three years.

At Miller Canfield, Leitman practices in the areas of criminal defense, complex commercial litigation, and appellate litigation. He has been recognized in Best Lawyers of America and as a Michigan Super Lawyer for his work in litigation and criminal defense.
