

Miller Canfield Lawyer Aimee Jachym Elected to Board of Directors of International Business Group of West Michigan

June 28, 2010

Miller Canfield associate Aimee J. Jachym (Kalamazoo, Mich.) has been elected to the board of directors of the International Business Group (IBG) of West Michigan.

At Miller Canfield, Jachym assists with a diverse range of business transactions, utilizing her background in business and international affairs to meet the needs of both local and global clients.

Jachym received her J.D. from Wayne State University Law School and B.B.A. and B.A. from Western Michigan University. She also has extensive teaching and business experience in both Michigan and Korea.

IBG of West Michigan is a nonprofit organization aimed at helping businesses in Western Michigan grow internationally.