

Miller Canfield Lawyer Kimberly Kefalas Appointed Co-chair of the ABA Section of Antitrust Law's Books and Treatises Committee

July 1, 2010

Miller Canfield principal Kimberly K. Kefalas (Ann Arbor, Mich.) has been appointed co-chair of the Books and Treatises Committee of the American Bar Association's Section of Antitrust Law. She has served on the Books and Treatises Committee since 2008.

At Miller Canfield, Kefalas focuses on complex commercial cases, primarily antitrust, and in particular in relation to voluntary associations and sports and entertainment litigation.

Kefalas received her J.D. from University of Michigan Law School and her B.A. from University of Michigan-Dearborn.

The American Bar Association Section of Antitrust Law is the leading professional organization for those interested in the fields of antitrust and competition law, trade regulation, consumer protection and economics.