

International Business Group of Western Michigan Meets January 12 to Discuss Employment-Based Immigration

December 23, 2010

Miller Canfield Immigration Services Manager Karen McAmmond will be the featured speaker at the next lunch meeting of the International Business Group (IBG) of Western Michigan. All are welcome to attend on Wednesday, January 12, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at Bravo! in Kalamazoo (5402 Portage Road).

McAmmond works with clients on all areas of employment-based immigration and routinely conducts training seminars to help others better understand various immigration matters, including documentation and visa categories. H-1B Cap, L-1B and I-9 Audits will be discussed.

IBG of West Michigan is a nonprofit organization aimed at helping businesses grow internationally. Cost to attend is $15 for IBG members; $20 for nonmembers, and includes lunch. RSVP to Bryan Todd at bryan.todd@baml.com.
