

Miller Canfield Women Lawyers and Staff Donate Hand-Knitted Afghan to Ann Arbor Art Center

---

May 16, 2011

The women lawyers and staff in the Ann Arbor office of Miller Canfield recently donated a hand-knitted 4' x 5' 100% wool sampler afghan to the Ann Arbor Art Center for its annual WineFest fundraiser. The afghan was sold at the auction for $500. Collaborating on the afghan project was one of numerous projects undertaken for Miller Canfield's 25th anniversary year in Ann Arbor. Dubbed "25 for 25," the celebration focused on creating a positive impact in the community. Miller Canfield lawyers and staff volunteered time and energy to 25 local nonprofit organizations.

Miller Canfield opened its Ann Arbor office in July 1984.

In the photo are (left to right): Miller Canfield lawyers Linda Goldberg and Sheila Jeffries, word processing technician Nancy Connell, and immigration services specialist Anna Choruzy-Chrabol.