

Miller Canfield Lawyer Brad Sysol Named Committee Public Service Chair for American Bar Association

September 26, 2011

Miller Canfield principal Brad H. Sysol (Kalamazoo, Mich.) was recently appointed as Public Service Vice Chair for the American Bar Association (ABA) Superfund and Natural Resource Damages Litigation Committee for 2011-2012.

As Public Service Vice Chair, Sysol will serve on the Public Service Task Force and become a key point of contact between the Section and its members encouraging them to participate in existing and future public service projects and will be responsible for implementing the Committee's Action Plan for the duration of the year.

Sysol is an experienced trial and appellate lawyer focusing on complex commercial and environmental litigation.. He has handled bench and jury trials and appeals before the Michigan Supreme Court and courts of appeals, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Sysol received his J.D. from Thomas M. Cooley Law School and B.S.B.A. from Florida Institute of Technology.