February 6, 2012

The law firm of Miller Canfield is proud to announce that it was recognized at the 5th annual Asia Pacific M&A Atlas Awards as a 2011 Finalist for "M&A Deal of the Year: Middle Markets" for its representation of Pacific Century Motors, Inc. (PCM) of China, which acquired Nexteer Automotive from General Motors. The transaction represents the single largest Chinese investment in the global automotive supplier industry to date.

The Asia Pacific M&A Atlas Awards took place on December 6, 2011, in Hong Kong, recognizing the best in class from the Asia Pacific deal communities. The "M&A Deal of the Year: Middle Markets" is a deal size above $150 million USD.

The Miller Canfield legal team was led by Shusheng Wang, Brad B. Arbuckle and Richard A. Walawender, principals in the firm's International/Emerging Markets practice who specialize in international M&A.

Miller Canfield has been representing clients in global business transactions for many years, especially involving emerging markets, as it established offices in Poland 20 years ago. Today its International/Emerging Markets practice has involved transactions in and with China, Mexico, India, Brazil, Eastern Europe and Russia, as well as several more developed economies.
