

Immigration Lawyer Suzanne Sukkar Joins Miller Canfield

March 22, 2012

The law firm of Miller Canfield announces that Suzanne Sukkar has joined the firm as senior counsel in the Ann Arbor office. She will focus her practice on immigration law, including employment-based visas and EB-5 immigrant investor visas.

Sukkar has years of experience in all aspects of immigration law, including obtaining employment-based visas (such as H, L, E, O, P, R, TN, and PERM labor certifications), family-based immigration and naturalization. She has interceded on behalf of clients before the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) when they have been accused of fraud or benefit ineligibility. She is fluent in Arabic and Spanish.

She is a Board Member of the American Arab Chamber of Commerce and Chair of the American Arab Professionals Network. She is a Director-at-large for the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan. She is also a member of the American Bar Association; State Bar of Michigan; American Immigration Lawyers Association; and, the Washtenaw County Bar Association. Sukkar received the 2011 National Woman of the Year Award from the National Association of Professional Women.

Prior to joining Miller Canfield, she was owner of Sukkar Legal of Plymouth, Michigan.

She received her B.A. from the University of Michigan and J.D. from Wayne State Law School.
