

Miller Canfield Lawyer Gurinder Singh Elected to South Asian Bar Association of New York Board of Directors

April 3, 2012

Gurinder J. Singh, an associate in the New York City office of the law firm of Miller Canfield, was recently elected secretary of the board of directors of the South Asian Bar Association of New York.

At Miller Canfield, Singh assists clients with international transactions including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic corporate structuring utilizing treaty-friendly jurisdictions, private placements, and private equity and venture funds. She chairs the firm's India Team and focuses her practice on matters relating to India. She serves as ambassador of the firm at U.S. India Business Council and Chamber of Commerce meetings.

She is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, Illinois Bar Association and New York State Bar Association. She received her J.D. from Wayne State University Law School and B.S.E. from the University of Michigan, College of Engineering.

Founded in 1996, the South Asian Bar Association of New York (SABANY) is an organization of South Asian attorneys practicing in the New York City metropolitan region.