

Miller Canfield Presents "Shifting Sands of Fiduciary Duty," June 19 in Chicago

June 4, 2012

The law firm of Miller Canfield will present "Shifting Sands of Fiduciary Duty: An SEC and ERISA Perspective," on Tuesday, June 19, from 7:30-10:00 a.m. at the Miller Canfield office (225 W. Washington, Ste 2600) in downtown Chicago. Miller Canfield principals Kenneth J. Sachs and Matthew P. Allen will provide an update on important, new and emerging SEC and ERISA regulations concerning fiduciary compliance.

The presenters will discuss the practical application of fiduciary compliance for broker dealers, investment advisers, and corporate general counsel and board committees in the post Dodd-Frank business climate, as well as the new, detailed rules affecting ERISA fiduciaries, including plan sponsors and investment committees, going into effect on July 1, 2012, and requiring the immediate attention of ERISA fiduciaries and plan sponsors.

Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. with the presentation from 8:00-10:00 a.m. There is no cost to attend; registration is required to Sandy Bera at bera@millercanfield.com or 248.267.3345.
