

Public Works Officers Info and Expo

League of California Cities
April 3-5, 2019

This conference is for professionals of all career levels. This institute teaches the latest developments in public works, executive leadership/management, preparing the next generation of leadership, managing transportation, infrastructure, water, and waste programs, etc.

For more information and to register, visit the League of California Cities website here.