

“Open and Public” Meetings and the COVID-19 Virus Emergency

03.16.2020

As more and more public events are cancelled to help slow the spread of the COVID-19 virus, Governor Newsom yesterday issued an Executive Order which suspends certain requirements of the Brown Act. But local public agency meetings are still required to be “open and public.” Richards, Watson & Gershon has issued an advisory regarding public agency meetings during the COVID-19 virus emergency, which is available here:

Public Agency Meetings During the COVID-19 Virus Emergency

If you have any questions about “Open and Public” Meetings and the COVID-19 virus emergency, please contact Craig A. Steele or any other attorney in our Municipal and Public Agency Law Department.

ATTORNEYS

Craig A. Steele

PRACTICE AREAS

Municipal & Public Agency
Law