Spencer E. Hennings is a Senior Associate in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group.

In 2020, Spencer received a gubernatorial appointment to serve as Florida's Condominium Ombudsman. From 2020-2023, he resolved thousands of issues in condominium associations, served as the state's liaison to those affected by the Miami-Dade Surfside condo collapse, and helped draft new condominium legislation at the local and state levels.

At Shutts & Bowen, Spencer focuses his practice on real estate transactions and condominium and planned development law. He has assisted in the representation of publicly traded companies, private equity funds, and foreign entities in their acquisition, disposition, and development of property throughout the State of Florida.
