Tara R. Price is a partner in the Tallahassee office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Appellate Practice Group.

Tara focuses her practice on administrative, commercial, constitutional, and appellate litigation. She represents both public and private clients in complex disputes before Florida's Division of Administrative Hearings, the district courts of appeal, the Florida Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, assisting her clients as they navigate regulatory and political challenges.

In addition to her experience in all aspects of appellate advocacy and procedure, Tara has extensive experience advising and litigating high-profile matters in federal district court on behalf of governmental clients, including the Florida Senate and Florida Secretary of State. Tara's representative experience also includes helping to secure a key victory for Florida's electric cooperatives in a high-profile matter before the Florida Supreme Court, which resulted in the rejection of a proposed constitutional amendment that would have radically altered the way Florida's electric cooperatives and other electric utilities operate their utility businesses. In addition to successfully representing regional associations of Florida Pilots seeking rate increases before the Florida Pilotage Rate Review Committee and Board of Pilot Commissioners, Tara has also represented Florida's business interests before the Florida Supreme Court in matters such as the Daubert evidentiary rule and Florida's summary-judgment procedure.

Prior to her private practice experience, Tara was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Adalberto Jordan of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the Honorable Robert L. Hinkle of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Florida. During law school, Tara interned for the Honorable Charles T. Canady of the Florida Supreme Court and was selected to serve as a gubernatorial fellow in 2010 and 2011 for Governors Charlie Crist and Rick Scott.

Tara also draws upon her substantial political and governmental experience prior to attending law school, including her service as a communications professional in the state's executive and legislative branches, as well as on numerous presidential and statewide campaigns. She worked as
