Amanda B. Buffinton is the Managing Partner of the Tampa office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Construction Litigation Practice Group.

A Martindale Hubbell AV® Preeminent™ rated attorney, Amanda is also Board Certified in Construction Law by The Florida Bar. She has been rated in Chambers USA for her expertise in construction law since 2020. Amanda specializes in the litigation and arbitration of complex construction claims including representing clients in jury and non-jury trials. She regularly represents design professionals, contractors, owners and developers in various types of construction disputes including claims related to public road and bridge construction including FDOT projects, electric generation landfills, storm water systems, retail structures, hospitals, municipal wastewater treatment facilities, warehouse structures, and large condominium and multi-family structures. She has successfully represented clients in construction claims involving professional negligence and design errors and omissions, personal injury and death, federal investigations relating to the False Claims Act, delay and acceleration damages, bond and lien issues, professional licensure, construction defects and building code violations. Amanda has extensive federal court experience and has litigated a multitude of construction and commercial claims in the Northern, Middle and Southern District Courts of Florida including the successful defense of a large class action suit on behalf of an international testing company.

Amanda regularly writes and speaks on construction issues including at industry events held by the Florida Transportation Builder's Association and the Construction Law Institute hosted by the Florida Bar's Real Property Probate and Trust Law Division. She has frequently been named as a Legal Elite in Florida Trend magazine as well as a Florida Super Lawyer since 2009, including being listed in the Top 100 Florida Super Lawyers list in 2023 as well as the Top 50 Women Florida Super Lawyers list from 2020 through 2023. She's also been listed among the Best Lawyers in America® in Construction Law since 2022. Amanda is originally from Louisville, Kentucky and was raised in both Louisville and St. Petersburg, Florida.
