Arthur J. Menor is a Partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is Chairman of the Real Estate Leasing Practice Group.

A nationally recognized real estate lawyer, Art has over 40 years of experience in all facets of commercial real estate, focusing on commercial leasing and the acquisition and disposition of commercial real estate. He advises landlords and tenants in various aspects of the leasing process and also counsels developers, investors, buyers and sellers. As a seasoned veteran, Art has worked on real estate projects of all sizes and has mastered his craft in improving the lease and purchase and sale agreement drafting and negotiation processes, including using technology to build and customize high-quality leasing and acquisition documents in a cost-effective manner.

Art has consistently been recognized by his peers, rating services, and the community. He is a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers, which recognizes distinguished, nationally known lawyers for their outstanding legal ability and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of real estate law. He is one of seven Most Distinguished Attorneys in the 2015 South Florida Legal Guide and is the only attorney listed as its Top Lawyer in commercial leasing.

Since 1996, Art has been involved with United Way of Palm Beach County, serving as chairman for two years and receiving the Tocqueville Society Award. Art has also helped address affordable housing problems by contributing to comprehensive policy changes, as the first Chairman of the Housing Leadership Council. He later was honored with the "Heroes of Housing" award. Art is also on the Board and previously served as the Chairman of the Economic Council of Palm Beach County, one of the most influential business organizations in Palm Beach County.

Art currently serves as a Vice Chair of the Legislation Committee of the Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section of The Florida Bar, and previously chaired the Real Estate Problems Study, Commercial Real Estate and Leasing Committees. He is the author of the "Leases" chapter in Florida Real Property Complex Transactions Manual of The Florida Bar. He has spoken and written regularly on landlord and tenant law, commercial real estate contracts, and other real estate topics.
