Ella A. Shenhav is a partner in the Tampa office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group. She is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US), accredited by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP), and is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Court Civil Mediator.

Ella focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation in state and federal courts, as well as arbitration. She has represented large and small businesses, financial institutions, employers, entrepreneurs and other individuals in successfully resolving, among other matters:

- business torts;
- privacy and data protection;
- contract disputes;
- employment and non-compete disputes;
- creditors' rights;
- securities litigation;
- real estate-related litigation;
- shareholder disputes; and
- claims of unfair and deceptive trade practices.

Ella is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US), accredited by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP). She advises clients on state, federal, and international data security and privacy issues, including compliance, risk management, and incident response, including responding to government agencies and private sector inquiries and complaints. In addition, she conducts risk assessments and prepares key documentation, such as incident response plans, privacy policies and notices, and contracts addressing privacy and cybersecurity and beyond.

Ella A. Shenhav

Ella's legal abilities regularly earn her recognition from her peers, the judiciary and the community. She has been recognized by Florida Trend's Legal Elite, by the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committee for "Outstanding Pro Bono Service by a Lawyer" and has been featured as a Florida Super Lawyers Rising Star for five consecutive years. Ella is actively committed to charitable and pro bono initiatives in the Tampa Bay community. She serves on the board of directors for several organizations, including Bay Area Legal Services, Are You Safe and Wm. Reece Smith, Jr. Litigation American Inn of Court. Ella also served as the Executive Director of Project H.E.L.P., a pro bono project which provides legal assistance to the homeless and indigent population.
