Francis E. "Frank" Rodríguez is Chair of the firm's Executive Committee and a member of the Tax and International Law Practice Group.

A Martindale-Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Frank focuses his practice on general business transactions, with an emphasis on federal and Florida tax issues. Frank frequently advises lenders and borrowers engaging in commercial financing transactions. With respect to Florida matters, Frank coordinates voluntary self-disclosures with the Florida Department of Revenue.

Frank represents non-resident individuals and foreign corporations with inbound tax planning, and U.S. individuals and domestic corporations with outbound tax planning. He counsels international families in succession planning, estate planning, trust issues, probate administration and litigation matters, and federal tax reporting, including voluntary self-disclosures. In connection with his international practice, Frank represents acquirers and sellers of multi-national businesses.

Frank advises on federal tax issues involving entity formation, structuring and restructuring, including with respect to formation and recapitalizations of corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies. He represents real estate developers and investors in connection with documenting transactions between partners, drafting partnership agreements and tax structuring regarding the acquisition, development, ownership and disposition of real properties and other assets. His work includes assisting clients with respect to amendments to provisions of partnership agreements dealing with tax allocation provisions, distribution provisions, and similar concepts.

Frank is frequently involved in structuring transactions for tax efficiency from a state and local tax perspective, and in representing clients in disputes with the Florida Department of Revenue. Frank assists clients with reporting, compliance, audits, and transactional due diligence related to Florida corporate income tax, sales tax, documentary stamp tax, intangible tax, and re-employment tax.

Frank is a member of the Tax Section of The Florida Bar and serves on the President's Council of Florida International University, among several other professional and civic organizations. He was awarded the Dade County Bar Association Pro Bono Award for his pro bono services. He also has
