Geoffrey Randall is Of Counsel in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he handles banking and financial regulatory compliance and transaction work and is a member of the Financial Services Practice Group.

A Martindale-Hubbell AV® Preeminent™ rated attorney, Geoffrey has over 30 years of experience representing financial institutions in corporate and international commercial law. He was recognized by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business for his work in Banking and Finance as "a top-notch lawyer. Very client-focused, extremely practical and results-oriented."

Geoffrey regularly represents local community banks, regional and U.S. money center banks, and foreign banking organizations, as well as trust companies, broker-dealers, investment advisory firms, and money-services businesses in a wide range of regulatory, compliance, and corporate governance matters, including:

- fiduciary and investment matters;
- development of policies and procedures and new products; and,
- geographic expansion and servicing arrangements.

He also handles transactional work, including:

- lending and other financings;
- mergers and acquisitions;
- branch purchases and corporate reorganizations;
- UCC issues; and,
- bank holding company organization matters.

With the support of other firm attorneys, Geoffrey also handles litigation, creditors' rights, tax, government relations, and real estate matters.
