Gregg I. Strock is a Senior Associate in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group.

Gregg concentrates his practice on real estate development and finance, with an emphasis on affordable housing. He represents for-profit and not-for-profit developers in the acquisition, financing, and development of affordable multifamily projects, including transactions involving low-income housing tax credits, tax-exempt bonds, and other layered financing structures.

He also represents national and regional homebuilders and developers in condominium and planned community matters, including condominium assemblages, terminations, and related transactions. In addition, Gregg advises landlords and tenants in commercial leasing matters.
